

Weekend (or longer) Getaways

Welcome to Weekend Getaways.

Summer weekends on the water are always better. I have gathered information on popular, nearby marina's where you can tie up your vessel and spend a few days. By the end you will feel as though you've enjoyed a full two-week vacation.

Whether you have a cabin boat, or a day boat such as a center console or bow rider, you can enjoy weekends out with your boat. Many marina's have hotels connected or nearby for those not planning on sleeping in their cabins. Some you can even glamp at!

Get out and be adventurous! Long Island is a paradise to be explored!
